
ABD AL MALIK

Raised in the suburbs of Strasbourg by a single mother, Abd Al Malik veered toward a life of crime even as he excelled in school. Despite his tough beginnings, Malik has become an acclaimed multitalented artist, winning awards and praise for his music, writing and filmmaking. In 2007, Malik won the Victoire de la Musique Award in the urban music category for his first album Gibraltar. He has also authored 5 books, including Qu'Allah bénisse la France (Laurence Tràn Prize winner) and La guerre des banlieues n'aurapas lieu (Edgar Faure Prize winner). In 2008, he was decorated with the French Chevalier Ordre des Arts et des Lettres. His directorial debut, a cinematic adaptation of May Allah Bless France!, received the FIPRESCI Prize at the Toronto International Film Festival. In August 2014, Abd Al Malik was a member of the jury of the Le Festival du Film Francophone d'Angoulême together with Dyana Gaye and FCC's own Anne Kern, which was presided over by iconic French actress Sabine Azéma.

© FABIEN COSTE

DOMINIQUE BESNEHARD

Dominique Besnehard has had a career like no other: assistant director for Jacques Doillon (notably for La Drôlesse / The Hussy), supporting actor, casting director and agent. He has discovered and represented an amazing array of French talents over the past 30 years, including actresses such as Juliette Binoche, Sophie Marceau and Isabelle Adjani; actors like Yvan Attal and Charles Aznavour and directors such as François Ozon and Claire Denis, to name only a few! He is also known in France as the host of a cinema show on Canal+: Un ticket pour deux. In 2008, he co-founded the leading Festival du Film Francophone d'Angoulême, showcasing movies from all over the French-speaking world. Through the years, he has constantly brought together unnumerable people, movies and organizations for the greater good of cinema.

© CHRISTOPHE BRACHET

FABIEN COSTE

Fabien Coste is a French music and film producer. He is also a manager, literary agent and a rising figure within the world of sports management.

In 2005, he co-created with Abd Al Malik the music and film production company Gibraltar through which he produced Malik's last three solo albums as well as his first feature film Qu'Allah bénisse la France. Between 2008 and 2014, Coste handled transfers and contracts for well-known international soccer players.

His unique professional approach is dictated by his passion for art and his conscious effort to build a universal cultural heritage.

Fabien Coste will present May Allah Bless France! (Qu'Allah bénisse la France.)

MAXIME DELAUNEY

Maxime Delauney is a film producer who founded Nolita Cinema in 2012. He previously occupied many roles within the world of cinema and culture in general. He was noticed by Dominique Besnehard during a student film festival and was offered an internship at Artmedia. Having accumulated internship experiences he later assisted Besnehard not only in the creation of his production company, Mon Voisin Productions, where he worked as a production assistant until 2008, but also Le Festival du film francophone d'Angoulême. He was agent to stars such Souchon, Jacques Higelin, Sylvie Vartan, Nicolas Duval, Julien Paolini and more before creating his own production company.

Maxime Delauney will be presenting Memories (Les Souvenirs) and FFC Spotlight: Young French Producers.

© NOLITA CINEMA

DYANA GAYE

After receiving the Louis Lumière scholarship in 1999, Dyana Gaye wrote the screenplay for a first short film Une femme pour Souleymane, which she directed the following year. Since then, she has created riveting, award-winning shorts with a recurring focus on aspects of Senegalese culture such as J'ai deux amours (2005), Deweneti (2006) and Un Transport en commun (2009). Dyana Gaye is attending FFC 2015 to present not only her first feature-length film Under the Starry Sky (Des Étoiles) but also a short entitled Un conte de la Goutte d'or, featured in the Talents Adami Cannes 2014 selection. Gaye was also on the jury of Le Festival du Film Francophone d'Angoulême in August 2014 together with Abd Al Malik and Anne Kern.

ADRIANNA GRADZIEL

After passing her Austrian baccalaureate in 2006, Adrianna Gradziel studied at the prestigious Cours Florent in Paris and later participated in the 2013 Theater Festival F.I.N.D directed by Thomas Ostermeier. A trilingual actress, she also studied theater in German with Simone Strickner and in Polish under the direction of Jerzy Kleszyk.

In 2015, Gradziel landed her first big film role in I Kissed A Girl. The actress is without a doubt the fresh new face of European cinema -- a star on the rise!

Adrianna Gradziel will be presenting I Kissed a Girl (Toute première fois.)

LUC HARDY

Luc Hardy is an entrepreneur, veteran adventurer, environmental advocate, author, member of the Explorers Club of New York. Luc is an engineer who graduated from Ecole Centrale Paris. He is president of Sagax, a US-based investment and management advisory firm. His curiosity for the world and his love of adventure stem from his origins in Brittany. He pursues a personal goal of traveling extensively across the globe, photographing and reporting from remote places in order to raise awareness for global causes. Luc is also Vice-President of Green Cross France & Territories, the environmental NGO founded by Mikhail Gorbachev.

© LUC HARDY

Luc Hardy will be presenting The Pursuit of Endurance - On the Shoulders of Shackleton

JEANNE HERRY

Daughter of iconic French actress Miou-Miou and singer Julien Clerc, Jeanne Herry was born into cinema. She studied at the École Internationale du Théâtre and received her first film role at the age of ten in Louis Malle's Milou en mai. She later appeared in such films as Gabrielle (2005) and J'attends quelqu'un (2006) and acted on stage in Le loup Garou and Le Belvédère. In 2009, she turned the camera on her mother Miou-Miou in her first short film entitled Marcher. Four years later, she directed her first feature-length film, Number One Fan (Elle l'adore) which brought her a Best First Film nomination for the 2015 Césars which she will present at FFC 2015.

© JEAN-CLAUDE LOTHÈRE

ANTOINE LE CARPENTIER

After studying business in Reims and in Dublin, Antoine Le Carpentier joined Dominique Besnehard's firm in 2008 and assisted him with his numerous projects (Mon Voisin productions, Le Festival du Film francophone d'Angoulême, Canal+ television show). In 2011, he created the short film department which strives to put young directors on the map. Le Carpentier has produced over 20 short films that have received multiple festival prizes.

Antoine Le Carpentier will present FFC Spotlight: Young French Producers

© CLEMENT COCHET

PIO MARMAÏ

Pio Marmai began his career on the stage at the Créteil Conservatory and at the Scuola Internazionale della Commedia dell'arte in Italy. In 2008, he was nominated for the Best Newcomer César award for his role in Le Premier jour du reste de ta vie. Since 2011, Pio Marmai has acted in multiple high-drama films such as Contre Toi, Aliyah and D'amour et d'eau fraîche for which he received a second César nomination in the Best Newcomer Category, making him the French actor of the moment. In addition, Marmai has demonstrated notable versatility by starring in comedies such as I Kissed a Girl (Toute première fois) and Maestro will he will be presenting at FFC 2015.

© CLEMENT COCHET

MARIE-CASTILLE MENTION-SCHAAR

Marie-Castille Mention-Schaar began her career in cinema as a producer for Vendredi film, a company she co-created with Pierre Kubel and Frédéric Bourboulon. Together, they produced numerous films in the early 2000s including films by Antoine de Caunes (Monsieur N and Désaccord Parfait) and Pierre Jolivet (Zim and co, Je crois que je l'aime). She wrote the screenplay for La Première étoile in 2009 and directed her first feature film three years later, amusingly entitled Ma Première fois (My First Time). Her second film, Bowling, inspired by a news story regarding a demonstration to stop the closing of the maternity ward in a hospital in Carhaix, resonates with Les Héritiers, her latest film inspired by true events.

© JEROME FLON

Marie-Castille Mention-Schaar will be presenting Once in a Lifetime (Les Héritiers.)

ROMAIN ROUSSEAU

Romain Rousseau began his career in literary property law. After spending four years at a law firm, Romain began advising La Société Générale and the production company LGM Cinéma. In early 2005, he joined LGM Cinéma full-time as their General Director in charge of managing financing for productions and overseeing the development, production and releases of feature films. He has actively participated in the production of numerous films such including Cliente, Pars vite et reviens tard, RTT, MR 73, Bus Palladium, Le Fils à Jo (FFC 2012), A bout portant and many more.

© NOLITA CINEMA

Rousseau will be introducing Memories and FFC Spotlight: Young French Producers.

JEAN-PAUL ROUVE

Jean-Paul Rouve attended the prestigious Cours Florent acting class taught by Isabelle Nanty where he became friends with Marina Foïs, Elise Larnicol, Maurice Barthélémy and Pierre-François Martin-Laval; together they created the theatrical troupe Les Robins des bois in 1997. The comedians wrote and performed in over 20 skits in this period and in 1999 landed their own televised theatrical farce on Canal+. In recent years Rouve has acted in major French films such as Un Long Dimanche de Fiançailles, Monsieur

Batignole (winner of the Best Newcomer César Award), Podium (nominated for Best Supporting Actor César Award) and La Môme. His legendary subtle humor makes him a key actor in contemporary French cinema.

Jean-Paul Rouve will be presenting Memories (Les Souvenirs.)